The Mobile Edge Professional Backpack may be the most intuitive case we've ever designed. With four separate storage sections for tech and accessories, it offers just the right amount of dedicated storage space—including a fully-adjustable, padded laptop compartment for laptops up to 16 inches and a separate, fleece-lined pouch for an iPad, tablet or e-reader—plus plenty of room for personal items and accessories.

Dads will be anything but boring and bland with one of our new Premium Briefcases in hand. Available in silver, navy, and black, this protective case brings it all together: form, function, and style.
